Sir

I have the honor to state that the Jodidars (Vydya Achanna pundit and Sreenivasa pundit) of Somanahalli also called Jadala-Thimmanhalli Village, Chickballapur Taluk, have applied for a loan of Rupees 8000/ on the mortgage of the said Village —

2 The object of the loan is to redeem the above Village and other property in Chickballapur mortgaged by them for Rs 8000/ as specified below: —

No	Name of Mortgagee	To whom mortgaged	Consideration			Property mortgaged
						Village	Whole Village or Minor Inam	Extent		Assessment			Jodi payable
1	Sreenivas pundit	V. Mooniappa	5000	.	.	Jodi Somanhalli	whole	360	39	295	7	.	58	.	.
						Golpade (Jodi)	do	336	28	.	.	.	46	9	.
						Kandvara	Minor
							Survey/155	1	33	3	8	.	2	12	.
							156	3	10	6	8	.
2	Achanna pundit	Subramena Swami Bank. (except Golpade)	3000	.	.	do Tank	— 18	3	35	28	.	.	3	9	9
						Honnenahalli	— 11/1	1	17	2	8	.	.	2	.
							— 22/1	.	38	1	12	.
						Abusalu	— 56	5	17	5	.	.	.	10	6
						Honnegal Jodi	Minor	8	12	.	.	.	.	10	.
						Silgatta Agal Village	134	8	12	22	.	.	2	8	9
			8000	.	.

As they find no other way of clearing the encumberances, they apply for the loan from Government under the rules in force —

3 The area of the Village is A. 360-39 with a Bunj of A. 295.7.0, the Jodi payable to Government being Rs. 58. It is estimated to be worth Rupees 10,000. The income derived therefrom is Rupees 646 as per Statement A enclosed in the accompanying file of Vernacular records.

The Villagers are in favor of the introduction of the survey settlement and in consideration of the benefit afforded by the Survey Guarantee, they promise to pay an upset price. — Varying from Rupees 20 to 30/- per acre of dry land and Rupees 40 to 50 on wet and Garden lands already held by them, and on these to. I show up hereafter. To this proposal the Inamdars agree. Under this arrangement the Salvage expected to be realized would aggregate Rupees 4500/- at the low rate of Rupees 15/- per acre on encroached land and available waste in the Village.

By declining this from the amount of loan loan Rupees 8000/. applied for, the balance, to be advanced to the Inamdars Comes up to Rupees 3500/. The interest on this loan at 5 per cent with the annual instal-ment to wipe off the debt in 10 years

Comes up to about Rupees 1155/ per annum
Exclusive of the Jodi and the management charges. The annual income of the Village after the Survey Settlement would come up to about Rs 700/. Hence the loan which Government have to make may be re-couped in 10 years as per orders laid down in Government Order No 5549-57
dated 17th December 1896 and Camp
No 297 dated 15th June 1889 to the Deputy Commissioner, Dharwar District.

5 Before determining what amount can fairly be advanced to the Inam-
-dars as per above orders I beg to re-commend that as a preliminary measure the Village may be ordered ordered to be Surveyed and assessed.

I have the honor to be,

Sir.

With reference to your docket No. 3857/ML445 dated 21st November 1899 calling for further particulars regarding the grant of a loan of Rs 8000/- to the Jodidars of Samenhalli. Jadalathimmana-halli village Chikkaballapur Taluk, I have the honor to state that the petitioner deposes before the Amildar that his grand father Venkatasubba Panditha successfully treated the Queen's Consort of His Highness the late Krishna Rajah Wodiyar when she was suffering from a dangerous illness which had baffled the Palace doctors, and was rewarded for his services by the grant of a monthly stipend of Varahas 10 which was continued to the Petitioner's father i.e during his life time. He alleges that the village in question was bestowed upon them on Inam tenure as an additional reward for the same services.

The petitioner has no other reference but the Sannad dated 14th February 1827, a copy of which he has produced.

It goes to show that the village was originally granted on shrotriya tenure to his father Subba Pandit and was subsequently attached on the latter representing that he has nothing to live upon, the grant was converted into a godi Inam

From this it is clear that the Inam was not granted for any distinguished
